

I am delighted with the success of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. Unwanted phone calls are few and far between. To lower the current standards would be devastating, a waste of my time. Let these solicitors use the US Postal Service.